Genesis 6:2

6:1 Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them,

2 that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.

3 And the LORD said, “My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.”

4 There were giants on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

5 Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil

The image features three large, three-dimensional wooden letters spelling out the word "SIN". The letters are made of a dark, textured wood with a prominent grain. They are set against a dark, textured background that appears to be a wall or a large piece of wood. The lighting is dramatic, coming from the side, which creates strong highlights on the edges of the letters and deep shadows in the recesses, giving them a sense of depth and weight. The overall mood is somber and reflective.

A large wooden structure, possibly a bridge or a large building, is under construction. The structure is made of many vertical wooden posts and horizontal beams, forming a complex framework. In the foreground, there are several stacks of logs, some on a wooden cart or platform. The scene is set at sunset, with a warm, golden light illuminating the sky and the ground. The background shows a hazy landscape with mountains and a body of water. The overall atmosphere is one of industriousness and a sense of scale.

38 For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark,

39 and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.

40 Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left.

THE ANGELIC FALL AND THE FLOOD

A dramatic scene of a wooden ark on a rocky island amidst a stormy sea. The ark is positioned on a dark, craggy rock in the foreground. The sea is turbulent with white-capped waves crashing against the shore. The sky is filled with dark, heavy clouds, but several bright sunbeams (crepuscular rays) break through, illuminating the scene from above. The overall atmosphere is one of divine judgment and divine light.

Genesis 7:24

- 20 The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered.
- 21 And all flesh died that moved on the earth: birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man.
- 22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, all that was on the dry land, died.
- 23 So He destroyed all living things which were on the face of the ground: both man and cattle, creeping thing and bird of the air. They were destroyed from the earth.
Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive.
- 24 And the waters prevailed on the earth one hundred and fifty days.
- 8:1 Then God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the animals that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided.

The image features two identical figures standing side-by-side, facing forward. They are dressed in black, hooded robes that completely obscure their faces. Each figure has large, dark, feathered wings extending from their backs. They are holding ornate, silver-colored swords with intricate hilt designs. The background is dark and atmospheric, with wisps of smoke or mist rising from the bottom. The overall tone is somber and mysterious.
